

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

ASSISTANT CHIEF OF COMPETITION (aka Assistant Chief Judge):

The Assistant will report to the Chief of Competition and is responsible for assisting the Chief in all of their duties. The Assistant Chief Judge will typically create official assignments or assist the Chief Judge in creating those assignments. In the event that the Chief of Competition is unable to perform their duties, the Assistant shall assume the role.

The Assistant Chief must be ready and capable of moving into the position of chief in the event that the chief needs a temporary release (for example, to compete) or if the chief is unable to continue running the event.

Requirements: Appropriate level of certification for event
Arrive prepared with equipment and supplies
Fulfil role in collaboration with Chief of Competition